

KLOVE radio is a huge help to our community, providing positive news and encouragement throughout the day with news as well as Christian music. This is the best programming of its kind that I have experienced, and it would be a shame to take away something that listeners are still financially willing to support. I believe that it is in the best interests of the public that this radio programming be allowed to continue uninterrupted.